2022 METRO QUILT EXPO Entry Information

The judge is Kate Eelkema, Minnetonka, MN NACQJ.

Entry Guidelines

1. Each entry must have a separate entry form. A non-refundable fee is required for each entry.
2. Entries must have been completed after 1/1/2016 and not have been displayed in a previous QGND quilt show.
3. Incomplete, damaged or soiled quilts will not qualify for display or judging. All quilts must be free of pet hair and any type of odor, including smoke. Quilts will be inspected upon receipt.
4. All quilt entries must have three layers. Tied quilts will not be accepted. Exceptions: Young Quilter entries.
5. All persons involved in making the entry must be listed on the entry form.
6. If entry is not an original design, credit must be given to the source.
7. You may enter as many quilts as you like in all Categories, however due to space restraints we may not be able to hang them all.
8. Framed items will NOT be accepted. Entries with embellishments must be capable of stacking or folding without risking harm to it or other entries.
9. For identification purposes all quilts should have a label on the back lower right hand corner of the quilt. The label should include the quilt name, the entrant's name, city and state.
10. Entrants may request that items not be judged. The entry fee is required and the quilt may still be hung in the show. All entries are eligible for Viewers' Choice award.
11. At the judge's discretion, the Quilters' Guild of North Dakota reserves the right to combine categories or not award prizes or ribbons in a category.
12. Entries are accepted in order of postmarked date.
13. The Committee reserves the right to reject any unqualified or misrepresented entry. All decisions of the Committee and judge are final.
14. Please submit printed or digital photo with entry.
15. Direct questions to: bazeleznik@gmail.com

Categories

1. Pieced

Piecing may be by hand or machine.

2. Appliqué

Appliqué may be by hand or machine.

3. Mixed Techniques

Includes crazy quilting, cathedral windows, whole cloth, embroidery and other specialty techniques.

4. Modern

Quilt is inspired by modern design that typically features minimalism, asymmetry, expansive negative space, alternate grid work, improvisational piecing, high contrast and many solid-colored fabrics. Quilt may be an original design or commercial pattern.

5. Art Quilt

Quilt is your original design. Quilts derived from a commercial pattern or designed by someone other than yourself are not eligible in this category. This category can include abstract, pictorial, portrait, landscape, and specialty techniques.

6. Kit or Block of the Month

Any project of any size made from a kit or as part of a shop/vendor block of the month project should be entered in this category. Judging will be based on the workmanship of the maker/quilter without regard to fabric/design choices.

7. 2022 Guild Challenge

QGND members only. Entry fee was included with Challenge Fee. See ndquilts.com for details.

8. Young Quilter

Quilt is made by a quilter aged 16 or younger. The quilt top must be constructed by the young quilter. Credit must be given to any adult collaborators. Young quilters may enter other categories where entry fee is required.

Sizes

To achieve equitable divisions for the judging process, quilts will be divided by size after all entries have been received.

All entry forms must include width and length measurement of the quilt.

Description

People who view the Metro Quilt Expo enjoy learning more about the background of the quilts and wall hangings they see. Please write a brief statement about your entry, which will be posted on your quilt, to give some insight into the quilting process. Include any interesting information about the project, such as your inspiration, whether it is an original design or pattern, why you used this color combination, etc. If this was a group project, please describe the group that made it and the occasion for which it was made.

SECURITY

During show hours, Guild members patrol the display area. After show hours, the room is locked. The Quilters' Guild of North Dakota, Inc. and the Hilton Garden Inn, will not be responsible for any damage, loss or theft.

Check your homeowner's or renter's insurance for coverage. Keep a photo and description of your entries to substantiate any possible claim.
